2. According to buddha - The goal of learning is not only to accumulate knowledge but to develop insights that can improve our life and the lives of people around us.

3. Buddha was able to promote wisdom and understanding through his teachings.

4. I like to discuss learning at elementary level and also learning inputs for teachers.

6. Learning Inputs for Teachers

7. If we like to see change in students, first change ourself- in thinking, in behaviour and in action

7.1 It's not what you say, but what you do that defines you

- "A man is not called wise because he talks and talks again; but if he is peaceful, loving and fearless then he is in truth called wise."
- “A dog is not considered a good dog because he is a good barker. A man is not considered a good man because he is a good talker.“

- Buddha

7.2 Words have the power to both hurt and heal

- "Words have the power to both destroy and heal. When words are both true and kind, they can change our world."

- Buddha

7.3 No one can walk your path for you.

- "No one saves us but ourselves. No one can, and no one may. We ourselves must walk the path."

- Buddha

7.4 Happiness never decreases by being shared.

- "Thousands of candles can be lit from a single candle, and the life of the candle will not be shortened. Happiness never decreases by being shared."

- Buddha

7.5 As you THINK, so shall you BE.

- "All that we are is the result of what we have thought: it is founded on our thoughts and made up of our thoughts. If a man speaks or acts with an evil thought, suffering follows him as the wheel follows the hoof of the beast that draws the wagon... If a man speaks or acts with a good thought, happiness follows him like a shadow that never leaves him."

  - Buddha

7.6 The truth has a way of always leaking out.

- "Three things cannot be long hidden: the sun, the moon, and the truth."

  - Buddha

7.7 Knowing others is wisdom, knowing yourself is enlightenment.

- "It is better to conquer yourself than to win a thousand battles. Then the victory is yours. It cannot be taken from you, not by angels or by demons, heaven or hell."

  - Buddha

7.8 Control your mind or it will control you.

- "To enjoy good health, to bring true happiness to one's family, to bring peace to all, one must first discipline and control one's own mind. If a man can control his mind he can find the way to Enlightenment, and all wisdom and virtue will naturally come to him."
- - Buddha

7.9 Look for peace within yourself.

- "Peace comes from within. Do not seek it without."

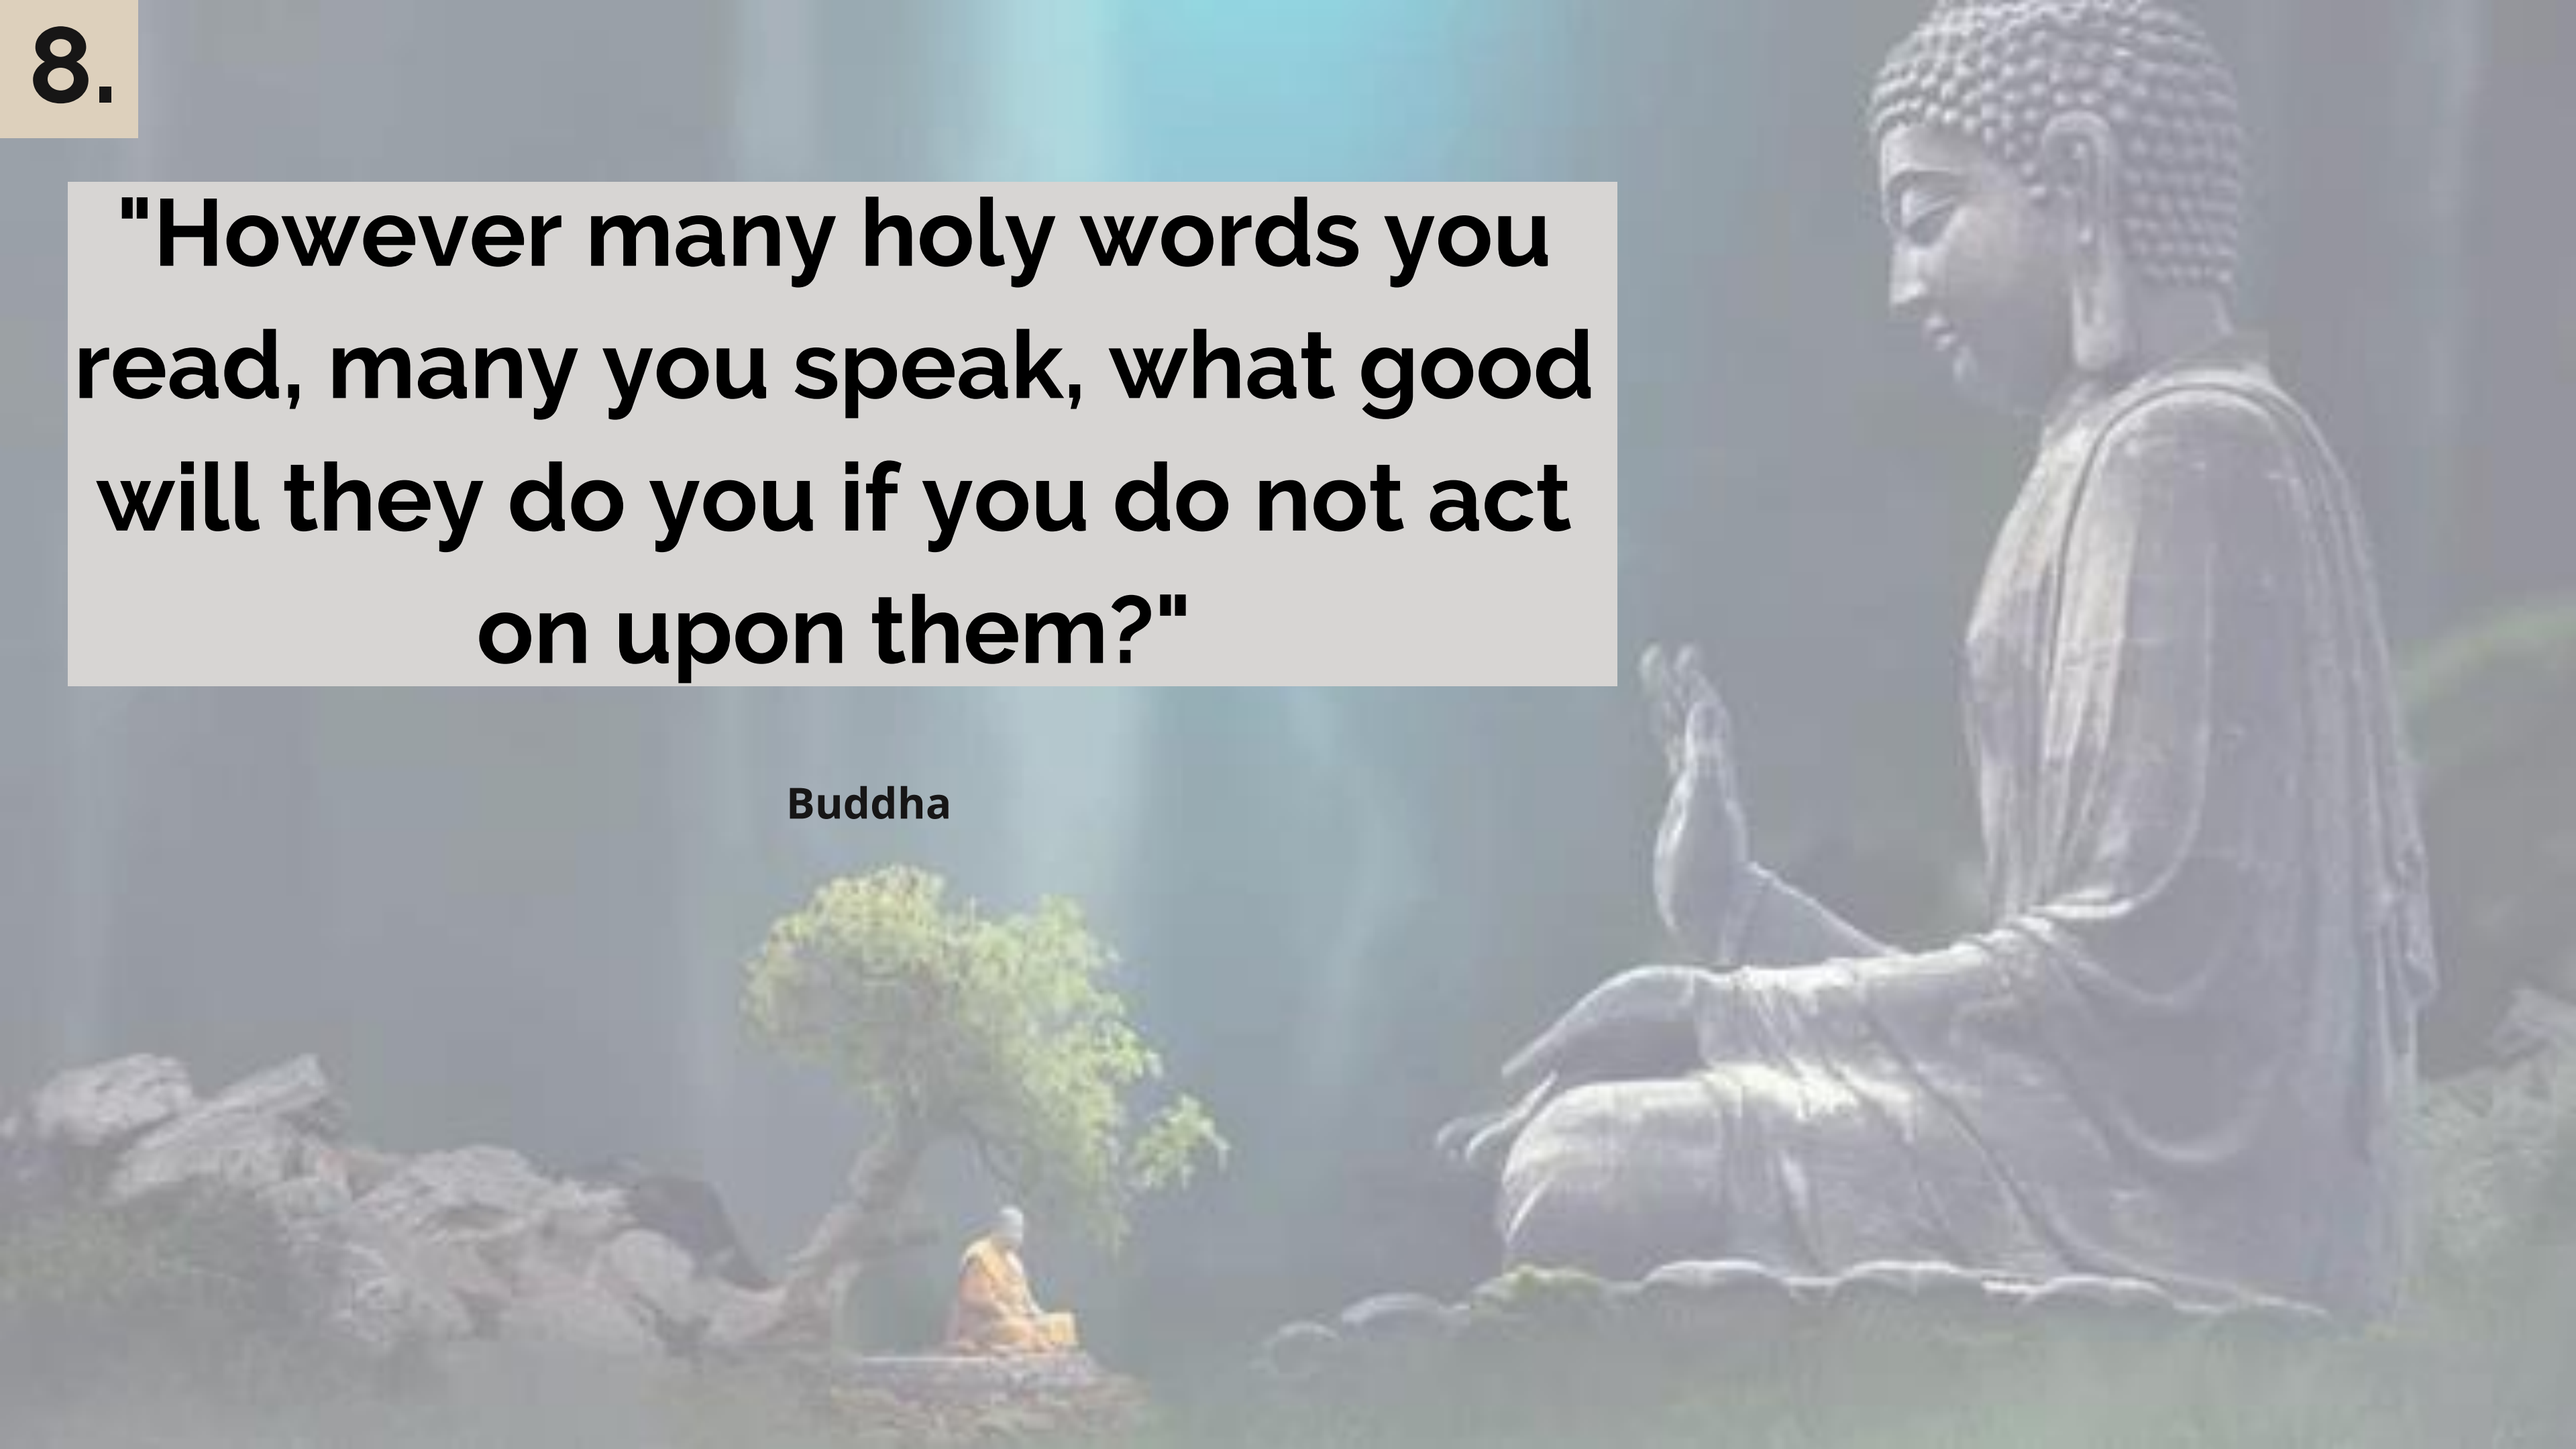
- Buddha

7.10 The Secret of good health is to live fully in the NOW.

- “Do not dwell in the past, do not dream of the future, concentrate the mind on the present moment.“
- The secret of the health for both mind and body is not to mourn for the past, nor the worry about the future, but to live the present moment wisely and earnestly.”

- Buddha

8.

"However many holy words you read, many you speak, what good will they do you if you do not act on upon them?"


Buddha
